

NEWSLETTER OCTOBER

As we welcome fall, we look back at some of the successful events this year, such as our business card exchange with the other Nordic chambers, "Ny i NY", a presentation on the importing of gemstones, and last week's event, where David Trads was speaking on the upcoming American election. Here is some of the other news from the Danish American Chamber of Commerce:

NEW BOARD MEMBER

Per Haubro-Jensen has stepped down as board member, and the Board has elected a new member and would like to welcome David Obel Rosenkvist, vice-President of Sales in North America for the Republic of Fritz Hansen, the renowned Danish furniture manufacturer. David joined Fritz Hansen in 2004 as Vice President of Branding and Communication.

CHRISTMAS LUNCHEON,

Please save-the-date for our Annual Christmas Luncheon, December 14th 2012 from 12 to 3 PM. This festive day will, as in many years past, take place in the wonderful surroundings of the Harvard Club in New York. Every year our members, and their friends and business partners, join us for this special celebration with plenty of snaps and raffle prizes. This is a good reminder to check that your membership is up to date, so you won't miss out.

STAMBORD

The first Wednesday of every month is the time when Danish-minded organizations, Danes and friends of Denmark meet for drinks. The Stambord venue has moved from our usual spot to Lex Bar @ The Court (St. Giles Hotel) on 130 East 39th Street (Corner of Lex and) due to renovations! As always, no sign-up is necessary. The next Stambord is October 3rd.

OTHER UPCOMING EVENTS

The five Nordic American Chambers of Commerce, in cooperation with The American-Scandinavian Foundation, invite you to Nordic Forum on November 14, 2012. And in a reception with Copenhagen University alumni and DJØF members, we have an event on Thursday 11th October, on the psychology of transitioning to a new country. More information to come.
