DACC March 2015

Dear &lt;&lt;First Name>>>,

We hope that you all are enjoying the spring.

March has already been an eventful month. On March 9 we had the pleasure of inviting all members to the event Outlook for the US Economy and Financial Markets which was open to DABGO members.

The speaker Torsten Sløk, Chief International Economist at Deutsche Bank, discussed key macro themes and the implications for individuals as well as corporations in the year ahead.

Thank you very much to Torsten for an excellent lecture.

As mentioned in a separate email the American Scandinavian Foundation will be awarding H.E. Anders Fogh Rasmussen the ASF Gold medal at their Spring Galla on April 17th. Tickets can be bought here

During the last month the Young Professionals have especially grown and we are very pleased to welcome all the new members.

Yours sincerely,
The DACC Secretariat

Danish films at TriBeCa Film Festival

A number of films by Danish directors and producers have been selected for the prestigious film festival TriBeCa who just announced their 2015 program. This means that you can watch Danish films in cinemas all over New York in April.

Two of the films are directed by Danes: Jeppe Rønde's dark feature film, "Bridgend", and "Democrats", a documentary on Zimbabwe's steps toward democracy by Camilla Nielsson.

Besides these two Danish directed movies, you can watch short film Listen and feature films Stranded in Canton and Virgin Mountain. All three of these films are created in collaboration with Danish film professionals.

TriBeCa Film Festival runs all over New York from April 16 to April 26, 2015.
