Law Offices of Jonathan Dunten

The immigration Law Offices of Jonathan Dunten was founded in San Francisco, California, in 2006 with the mission of providing expert immigration services in an environment of dignity and respect. In the subsequent years the Law Offices of Jonathan Dunten has methodically grown as a law firm through hard work, attentive customer service, and satisfied clients. This year, the firm added an office in Orlando, Florida, with firm management entrusted to Marcel Marcel, a Danish-American immigration attorney.

Marcel came to the United States at the age of 11 as an immigrant from Denmark. He spent most of his life in the Orlando metropolitan area with the exception of the 4 years he served in the United States Army Infantry with honor. While studying law abroad in South East Asia he met his Jonathan Dunten - a classmate - and a life long friendship was born. Both men shared the same core values of hard work, loyalty, and a passion for the law.

A law firm distinguishes itself by the results it achieves for its clients and the community. Since its founding, the firm's attorneys have expended hundreds of volunteer hours representing individuals and families before the courts as well as educating the community through workshops sponsored by local organizations and foreign consulates. Because of the trust and expertise cultivated by the firm over the years, attorney members have also been invited by local television and radio to speak about current events.

With this background we are pleased to introduce the immigration Law Offices of Jonathan Dunten as the newest members of the DACCNY. We look forward to serving the needs of the Danish immigration community in New York and throughout the United States. Please see our website www.leymigratoria.net for contact information. You may call Marcel on his cell phone (202) 999-2084. English, Spanish, and Danish is spoken within the firm.

Installations to Brooklyn Bridge Park

A number of interactive art works, by internationally renowned Danish artist Jeppe Hein, will be display in Brooklyn Bridge Park from May 17.

Engaging visitors through pieces that are both accessible and surprising, the show includes three distinct bodies of work: Appearing Rooms, a series of "rooms" formed when water shoot up from the work's gridded base forming "walls" that appear and disappear throughout the day; A large new Mirror Labyrinth, featuring equidistantly spaced vertical elements at varying heights made from mirror-polished stainless steel that multiply the surrounding landscape through myriad reflections; and 16 new Modified Social Benches that suggest the idea of traditional park benches but with unconventional angled, twisted, and bent forms.

You can explore Jeppe Hein's interactive sculptures at the Brooklyn Bridge Park from May 17, 2015 – to April 17, 2016.
