DACCNY December 2016

Dear <<First Name>>,

A big thanks to all who participated in the DACC Christmas Luncheon 2016. The event was as grand as ever and the participants managed to squeeze every last drop of Christmas cheer out of the Harvard Club.

Please find a word from our outgoing chairman Peter Frederiksen below.

The DACC Secretariat will be closed between Christmas and New Years but will be back in business on January 3.

As mentioned by the President at the Christmas Luncheon, 2016 was a busy year for DACC with many great events and many new members. Looking toward 2017, we will hit the ground running with a January 19 event featuring Deutsche Bank Chief International Economist Torsten Sløk, "The US Economic Outlook and President Trump" and several other events are on the drawing board. We look forward to seeing all of you in the new year.

Our wishes for a happy Holiday and a happy New Year!

Yours sincerely,
DACCNY Secretariat

Dear Members and Friends of the Danish American Chamber of Commerce,

For the past eight years, first four as your Chamber President and another four as Chairman of our Board of Directors, I have had more memorable moments than I could ever have hoped for. It has, indeed, been an amazing time and such a great honor to serve in those capacities for our venerable Chamber which turned 85 years old in 2016.

A year ago, when our dedicated Board last re-elected me, I asked them to start looking for a new Chairman. The Chamber's bylaws mention nothing about term limits, but I generally find them productive. Thankfully, our Board has a deep bench of very dedicated and exceptionally talented members, and at our upcoming Board meeting, in early January, I expect to be allowed to step down and be replaced by our Chamber President of the past four years, Anne-Mette Elkjaer Andersen. She, in turn, will likely be succeeded as Chamber President by our current VP, Christian Schoenberg. With the two of them at the helm, we will have the best leadership I can think of. In the meantime, I will continue as a common board member and hope to be of assistance to our new leadership in the years to come.

I see a bright future for the Chamber. We continue to make a great value proposition for our members with excellent networking opportunities at our many enlightening events each year. Not least, over the past 3-4 years we have established a healthy Young Professionals chapter which ensures a new generation to carry the torch.

I would like to thank all of you for the immense support you have given the Chamber and me throughout my terms – our many sponsors and partners; our secretariat; our hardworking, all-volunteer Board; but most of all our wonderful members without whose vivid participation and always-constructive feedback it would all have seemed rather dull. I'm looking forward to many more exciting years during which our Chamber will surely thrive, with myself in a more retired role.

With gratitude,

Peter Frederiksen

Outgoing DACC Chairman
