DANISH-AMERICAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

NEWSLETTER

July 2018

Hi everyone,

Uncle! This summer is already too hot and humid, and we can barely breathe! Enough already! At any rate, if you're lucky enough not to have to schlepp around on the sizzling sidewalks of the city with an oxygen tank... well, good for you!

with us, albeit perhaps under somewhat muted circumstances with all this talk of tariffs and trade barriers. On a cheerier note, Denmark has the longest strategic relationship with the United States going back to 1783. Even as it seems a foregone conclusion these days, here's something that will impress your American friends, kids, and grandkids: Denmark was the first country to recognize the independence of the United States in 1792. So, there!

What's next? Be sure to register for the planned summer and fall events and stay tuned for more networking opportunities.

We can't wait to see you! Until then, stay cool and enjoy your summer.

All best,

Marianne Honoré

WELCOME

We welcome new individual member (and DACC Chamber president) Anders Jensen, trade advisor at the Danish Trade Council.

We are incredibly excited to have Anders back on board.

A WORD FROM OUR NEW PRESIDENT

Dear DACC Members,

As the incoming president, let me reiterate the great appreciation for the outgoing chair, Anne-Mette, and first-hand during my time as general manager.

Now that I'm back in DACCNYP, I look forward to creating value for our members and strengthen the organization.

Beyond events and in close collaboration with the board, I plan to build on the great organizational and structural work done by our previous president, present chairman, Christian Schoenberg and general manager Marianne Honoré, in order to better understand how you as members engage with and benefit from the organization and what we can do to harness this value to serve you better.

I look forward to meeting and reconnecting with you all at our upcoming events and to continue to push our agenda of supporting and strengthening the Danish-American business community in New York City and the surrounding Tri-State Area.

Thank you!

Best,
Anders Jensen
DACCNYP President
