Newsletter

January 2020

Dear Members,

As a quick follow-up to Anders Jensen's December letter last month, let me - somewhat belatedly - thank everyone for a phenomenal day/evening at our Harvard Club Christmas Luncheon, but especially Kristina Hilton and the two interns made available by the Consulate General. We had near-record attendance and, to wit, we received feedback to match the effort: About 65% of all guests left feedback, of which most responses were overwhelmingly positive. My two favorite responses were demands for "more aquavit!" and a call to move the festivities back to the Harvard Club.

As part of my duties as chairman, I was happy to kick off the event and officially welcome on-board - if you will - new members Nargis A. McGuinness (Kelsen), Anders Lindskov Jensen (Abbott), and Paul Kristensen (SAS) for three-year terms. And my thanks go out to Peter Hessellund-Jensen (Hessellund-Jensen Law Offices) and Bettina Gochman Schriver (DouglasElliman) for being willing to serve another three terms. Congratulations on Ekstrøm, Morten Marott, Søren Müller, and Nicholas Vita. Thank you for all your hard work over the years!

Looking ahead to another great year, we're kicking off the New Year with a number of events that we've already been able to put in the books.

The first is a follow-up on last year's successful Cybersecurity event: Cybersecurity 2.0 on February 6, 2020. Again this year, we have an impressive panel from the NY District Attorney's Office, the U.S. Secret Service, the City of New York, and the Global Cyber Alliance available to offer unique insights into the cybersecurity world of 2020. The event will take place at SAP Next-Gen's impressive Hudson Yard space.

The event after that will take place at Yankee Stadium on May 13, 2020, where the MLS New York City Football Club (NYCFC) - our generous sponsor partner over the years - is graciously hosting us for a unique networking event and match (NYCFC v Toronto FC) in its MVP Lounge. We are hoping to arrange for an open bar at the event. More information to come.

Our annual Whitsun Luncheon will take place at the two-starred Michelin Restaurant Aquavit on June 5, 2020. And again this year, we will have a guest speaker (and wonderful company).

Stay tuned, and all best wishes for a great year!
