Dear Members,

We started the month by kicking off our Cybersecurity 2.0 event at SAP Next-Gen's impressive 48th-floor offices in the new Hudson Yards complex. And once again, we had a sold-out crowd and panel representatives from the Manhattan District Attorney's Office, the U.S. Secret Service, the City of New York, and the Global Cyber Alliance. Two major topics were how low the barriers to entry have

UPCOMING EVENTS:

Command, the NYPD, the Secret Service, and the FBI have formed and how they are tackling the challenges in safeguarding critical infrastructure. The panel promised to return in 364 days for “Cybersecurity 3.0”.

Delicious sandwiches were generously sponsored by Dr Smood Group.

What's next? Register for our next event in the Nordic Series - Living as an Expat on March 12, 2020, which will focus on what it is like living as an expat in the United States. Our interesting speakers include Katarina Holm-DiDio, leadership and executive career coach, and Dr. Kenneth Pound, professor of psychiatry at Columbia University who will share their expertise on the psychological impact of relocation, the cultural shock dilemma, and other strategies to coping with a new life abroad.

Stay dry - and warm!

Best,
